

Tenshin Fletcher Roshi is Abbot of Yokoji Temple, Zen Mountain Center, California. Born in Manchester, Tenshin Roshi went to the USA in 1979 and trained for 25 years with Taizan Maezumi Roshi, founder of the White Plum Lineage. He received Dharma Transmission in 1994. Each year he visits the UK to lead a Zen sesshin at Crosby Hall near Liverpool.

Keisan Scott Sensei received Dharma Transmission in 2009. He is founder of Stonewater Zen Sangha, a Big Mind facilitator and widely published author.

“It is not a matter of seeing something or having something called ordinary mind. But rather, how do we use this ordinary mind? How do we fully appreciate it? How do we fully live?”

A 6 Day Zen Buddhist Sesshin

led by Tenshin Fletcher Roshi
Abbot, Yokoji Temple,
Zen Mountain Center, California
with
Keisan Scott Sensei

Sunday 24th Oct (start 6pm) to Sat 30th Oct (finish 11pm) 2010
at Crosby Hall near Liverpool

The schedule will be one of traditional Zen training with sitting and walking meditation, private interviews and dharma talks.

The venue (CHET) is a purpose built centre in the grounds of a stately home in the countryside near Liverpool.

The owner has kindly given permission to walk in the grounds.

Meals will be vegetarian and places are limited.

This seventeenth annual UK retreat will be suitable for beginners and experienced practitioners alike.

It is a great opportunity to begin or renew training in an authentic and traditional lineage.

Waged £250 Unwaged £195 (limited places)

Private pension £220

Daily rate: Waged £45 Unwaged £35 Pension £40

Preference will be given to those booking the full retreat.

To book: A non refundable deposit of 50% of the total fee is required in advance to secure your place. Booking as early as possible with a firm commitment enormously helps the organisation of the sesshin.

Please send a cheque payable to Stonewater Zen and a stamped addressed envelope marked 'Road' or 'Rail' (depending on how you plan to travel) for the return of registration details to:
