A Zen Sesshin

with Tenshin Fletcher Roshi
& Keizan Scott Sensei

Sunday 7th April (6pm) to Saturday 13th April (10am) 2019
at Crosby near Liverpool

Tenshin Fletcher Roshi

is Abbot of Yokoji Temple, Zen Mountain Center, California. Tenshin trained with Taizan Maezumi Roshi, founder of the White Plum Lineage, from 1979 and received Dharma Transmission in 1994.

Keizan Scott Sensei

is founder of StoneWater Zen Sangha and author of many books including The Elements of Zen, Simply Zen, Samurai and Cherry Blossom and The Three Bowl Cookbook.

This 2019 annual retreat is a unique opportunity to practice with both Sensei and Roshi and demand for places will be high - early booking is strongly advised. Places are limited and priority will be given to those attending the whole sesshin.

Suitable for beginners and experienced practitioners, this is a great opportunity to begin or renew training in an authentic and traditional Zen lineage. This will be a traditional Zen training with sitting and walking meditation, private interviews and Dharma talks.

The venue is the CHET centre in the grounds of a Crosby Hall in the countryside near Liverpool. The owner has kindly given permission to walk in the grounds. Meals will be vegetarian. Arrival & registration from 2pm Sunday 9th April.

Cost: £320 taxpayers £225 non taxpayers (limited places).

To book: A non refundable deposit of £75 is required in advance to secure your place. Payment should be by bank transfer or cheque payable to Mountain Zen.
