A Zen Sesshin

with Keizan Scott Roshi
& Tony Shinro Doubleday
Sunday 27th October (6pm) to Saturday 2 November (10am) 2019
at Crosby near Liverpool

Keizan Scott Roshi

is founder of StoneWater Zen Sangha and author of many books including The Elements of Zen, Simply Zen, Samurai and Cherry Blossom and The Three Bowl Cookbook.

Tony Shinro Doubleday

leads the Stonewater Zen group in north London. In 1992, he co-wrote The Elements of Zen with Keizan Roshi and he received Hoshi ('Dharma Holder' certification) from Roshi in 2016.

This 2019 autumn retreat is a unique opportunity to practice with Roshi and Shinro. Places are limited and priority will be given to those attending the whole sesshin.

Suitable for beginners and experienced practitioners, this is a great opportunity to begin or renew training in an authentic and traditional Zen lineage. This will be a traditional Zen training with sitting and walking meditation, private interviews and Dharma talks.

The venue is the CHET centre in the grounds of a Crosby Hall in the countryside near Liverpool. The owner has kindly given permission to walk in the grounds. Meals will be vegetarian. Arrival & registration from 2pm Sunday 27 October.

Cost: £320 taxpayers £225 non taxpayers (limited places).

To book: A non refundable deposit of £75 is required in advance to secure your place. Payment can be made by bank transfer, PayPal or cheque payable to Stonewater Zen Centre. For further details and all bookings contact: John Suigen Kenworthy 07944 208589 or email johnsuigen@gmail.com.
